

The proprietors of Stinson's Addition...
 We have caused the same to be surveyed and subdivided into lots and blocks as indicated in the foregoing plat for the purpose of conveying the same according to law. And we hereby release our right, title, interest and claim in and to the streets and alleys as laid out in said plat, and we give the same for public use. But said proprietors do not hereby dedicate any part of said land above described for Rail Road tracks, or Rail Road purposes, nor do we hereby to any Railroad now located, or hereafter to be located upon or across said land any right of way, easement, or any estate or interest therein. And especially reserves heretofore that portion of said land occupied by the line of the Saint Paul, Stillwater and Taylor's Falls Rail Road as indicated in said plat, except so far as the same is included in the streets or alleys dedicated by this plat to public use.

Witness our hands and seals this 19th day of September A.D. 1872.
