St. Paul, Minn. April 2nd, 1900.

Your committee appointed on the petition for the extension and continuation of Hamline Avenue, beg to report that in accordance with posted notice, we did on the 19th day of March, 1910, view said proposed said extension and held a hearing on said petition at the Town Hall of Mounds View in the afternoon of said day. Several of the petitioners were present and spoke in favor of the petition being granted. The only objectors to the prayers of the petition being granted were Thos. Ryan, Jos. Schutta and Jacob Konchinski.

The proposed road passing through which they had been to the expense of grubbing and plowing.

Your committee under the circumstances decided to assess damages as follows:

To Thos. Ryan	$50.00	the sum of Fifty Dollars and
To Jos. Schutta	65.00	" " " Sixty Five " "
To Jacob Konchinski	65.00	" " " Sixty-five "

and do further recommend that the assessment of benefits and damages as apportioned by Gates A. Johnson, County Surveyor, be adopted as part of this report, and your committee would recommend that the prayer of the petition be granted.
